The Details

Fancy working for a well renowned, small independent Coffee Shop on the side of the traditional Market Place in Olney, Buckinghamshire?

The Place:

The Little Coffee Pot, Market Place, Olney. It offers 10 indoor tables and 3 outside tables representing 24 covers.

The Role:

We are seeking a Weekend Cook with previous experience. The successful applicant will lead the activities in our compact kitchen. We are a small team and one of the owners will always be in attendance working front of house.

Training will be given with our kitchen equipment, our meal presentation and we'll fill you in on how we handle and deliver food orders to the coffee shop customers.

Your role will ensuring the smooth operation of our weekend kitchen which offers a diverse range of food. It's important to us that all Little Coffee Pot customers can get a delicious meal or snack.

This role is perfect for Cooks with experience who pride themselves on being able to satisfy mainstream, vegan, vegetarian and gluten free customers. A modern coffee shop has diverse needs and you should be enthusiastic about creating quality meals in a traditional, but dynamic workplace.
